EVENT INFORMATION

- Etiquette and Cultural expectations
- Conference information
- International Conference on Small and Medium Enterprises
- Ecommerce forum

Etiquette and Cultural expectations

South Africans usually like to take the time to exchange pleasantries and engage in social discussion after greetings. It is appreciated to ask about someone's health.

It is polite to show respect and interest in what people have to say whenever they are talking. A South African may quickly disregard you as a disrespectful person if they feel you are not listening to them.

Conference information

COVID Vaccination updates

All ICSME attendees must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 prior to checking in at the event. Record of COVID-19 vaccination must be provided at onsite check-in..

Acceptable records include your physical COVID-19 vaccination/immunization card, a photo of your vaccination/immunization card, or a digital verification from a smartphone application.

Hygiene measures

Masks are required for everyone at the conference except when eating or drinking. We require attendees to remain stationary while they eat. If attendees are outside a designated eating area, they must replace their masks between bites or sips.

Reception

Please be prepared to present a valid, government-issued photo ID and proof of vaccination at the check-in point. We wish to urge all attendees to comply with our regulations.

Conference information

International Conference on Small and Medium Enterprises

Welcome to the 26th ICSME in Johannesburg under the theme “Recurrent Emergencies. Resilient Enterprise. Envisioning the Future.” Similar to past ICSMEs, conference attendees will include policymakers, enterprise support organisations, financing institutions, international experts, academics and researchers, international development agencies, and entrepreneurs.

Highlights

- SME Support ecosystems
- Entrepreneurship

Ecommerce forum

Trade Conferences International (TCI) is specifically designed to assist and encourage e-merchants and ecommerce service providers to expand their market reach, increase sales and revenue, improve brand visibility and create a competitive advantage.

Highlights

- Thought leaders from organisations such as the South African Revenue Services (SARS) & Pick n Pay.
- Ecommerce professionals from companies dealing with retail, online payments sales should attend.
- Opportunity to network with industry professionals and increase business relationships
